The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Travel with an average of 37 people (maximum of 44).

This tour features hotels that may feature high-sided bathtubs that require you to step into the bath to shower. These bathtubs may be higher than you are used to and may not have grab bars.

Most of the sightseeing on this tour is outdoors so please be prepared for walking in all weather.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at the time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

Much of the terrain in Cornwall, Devon, and the Cotswolds is hilly and uneven.

Elements of the guided tours in Cornwall and Devon may involve walking uphill and over sandy and grassy areas.
